The reason Kairo has airpods in all the time is because of his technique.
His ability allows him to control sound.
Meaning the more music he listens to, the more he can manipulate.
His technique only works when he has his headphones in heh.

RAHHH!!!!!

His Technique revolves around what kind of music he’s listening to. For example, if Kairo is listening to classical music, his movements will be very sm[illegible]d calm.
